Corporate Compliance, Healthcare & Privacy Job Resources

Recent consumer protection, financial industry and healthcare laws have fueled a demand for professionals in legal compliance and related fields. Generally speaking, a "compliance officer" is an employee tasked with ensuring that a company complies with its outside regulatory requirements and internal policies. While many of these positions don't require a J.D., "lawyers are often preferred in compliance roles and are more likely to get promoted." See US News & World Report http://www.usnews.com/education/best-graduate-schools/top-law-schools/articles/2015/03/16/jump-start-a-legal-career-with-a-job-in-compliance-law.

Privacy law is another growing area for law graduates. According to an article published by a George Washington University professor and privacy expert, Daniel Solove, "there is a big demand for lawyers versed in privacy issues." Read the article here https://www.linkedin.com/pulse/20130827061558-2259773-starting-a-privacy-law-career.

Career Services has compiled the following resources for you to learn more about these emerging areas.

General Compliance Resources

Compliance Crossing (http://www.compliancecrossing.com) - This site contains both legal and non-legal compliance jobs.

Ethics and Compliance Officer Association (ECOA) (http://www.theecoa.org) – This organization's website contains a job bank for compliance opportunities.

International Association of Risk and Compliance Professionals (http://www.risk-compliance-association.com) – This organization provides publications and training for those involved in risk management and compliance work. Use this resource to find compliance professionals and employers contained throughout their publications and those who are part of their speakers' bureau.

Corporate & Financial Industry Compliance

Corporate Compliance (http://www.corporatecompliance.org) – This site is for the Society of Corporate Compliance and Ethics (SCCE), a 501(c)6 member-based association for regulatory compliance professionals.

Compliance Insights (http://www.compliance-insights.com) – This website provides information on issues of financial industry compliance. You can access the job board, event listing and resource guide without membership.

Compliance Week (http://www.complianceweek.com) – This site is an information service on corporate governance, risk and compliance that features weekly electronic newsletters, a monthly print magazine, proprietary databases, industry-leading events, and a variety of interactive features and forums.

National Society of Compliance Professionals (http://www.nscp.org) – This organization offers a variety of resources, events and training to its members. The website contains many free resources, and information helpful in locating compliance employers, including a job bank.

eFinancial Careers (http://jobs.efinancialcareers.com/Compliance_|_Legal.htm) – This job site contains both legal and non-legal compliance jobs.

Association of Financial Crime Professionals Worldwide (http://www.acams.org) – The ACAMS is the largest international membership organization dedicated to enhancing the knowledge, skills and expertise of AML/CTF and financial crime detection and prevention professionals.

Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association (SIFMA) (http://sifma.org)– SIFMA's website contains information on compliance issues and also contains a career center with a job-posting board and other resources for obtaining internships and post-graduate opportunities.

Health Care

Guide to Careers in Health Law– Harvard Law School's guide to careers in health law. The Guide contains general information for existing fellowships, as well as links to health organizations. http://hls.harvard.edu/content/uploads/2015/07/2012HealthLaw.pdf.

American College of Healthcare Executives (http://www.ache.org) – The ACHE website has a Career Services tab with a job bank and a list of healthcare career-related resources. Also from the ACHE, check out http://www.healthmanagementcareers.com.

American College of Legal Medicine (http://www.aclm.org) - The ACLM represents the specialty of legal medicine in the American Medical Association's Specialty and Service Society. The ACLM website contains useful information on relevant conferences and health-law publications.

American Health Lawyers Association (https://www.healthlawyers.org) – This site contains news and publications and a national job bank for careers in health law.

Healthcare Compliance Association (HCCA) (http://www.hcca-info.org) – The HCCA is a member-based, non-profit, organization for compliance professionals in the healthcare field. The site contains a job board at http://www.hcca-info.org/CareerCenter/JobBoard.aspx.

Healthcare Financial Management Association (http://www.hfma.org) – The HFMA website offers a job bank, list of executive search firms, and resume-referral services.

Health Careers (http://www.healthecareers.com/search-jobs) –Employment opportunities and career resources in healthcare field.

Privacy

International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP) (http://privacyassociation.org) – A global membership organization consisting of privacy and information security professionals. In addition to hosting annual events and publishing privacy and data protection e-newsletters, the IAPP hosts a job board at https://iapp.org/connect/career-central/#career.

Compliance Certification & Education

Aegis Compliance & Ethics Center's (monthly) Compliance Round-Up webinar (http://aegis-compliance.com/compliance-roundup-webinars) - Aegis offers compliance services for health care, financial, energy, manufacturing, retail, government, and other industries. They offer free webinars on compliance issues and regulatory updates.

Association of Financial Crime Professionals Worldwide (http://www.acams.org) – The ACAMS provides a Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialist (CAMS) Certification and advanced AML certification.

FINRA (Financial Industry Regulatory Authority) Compliance Bootcamps (http://www.finra.org/Industry/Education/ComplianceBootCamp/) - FINRA's Compliance Boot Camps, located throughout the country on an on-going basis, provide a broad view of essential compliance concepts.

FINRA Online Learning (http://www.finra.org/industry/online-learning). Access FINRA's online learning library, including e-learning courses, free webinars, and podcasts.

Healthcare Compliance Association (HCCA) (http://www.hcca-info.org) - The HCCA is a member-based, non-profit, organization for compliance professionals in the healthcare field. The site lists events, products, and resources for healthcare compliance certification.

International Association of Privacy Professionals (https://privacyassociation.org/) – The IAPP offers CIPP (Certified Information Privacy Professional) certification, often obtained by health care compliance professionals and sought out by employers. The CIPP exam covers more than HIPAA/HITECH and takes into consideration all areas of privacy.

Practicing Law Institute (PLI) (http://www.pli.edu) - This non-profit continuing legal education organization offers numerous courses on privacy and data security, including an annual institute on the topic that is offered both live and over webcast. This program focuses on current critical issues of information privacy, cybersecurity and data protection faced by all companies.